Navigate

While viewing the pages of a form, clicking this tile will take you to the form's Index page. The index page gives you access to all the form pages.

The screenshot illustrates the user interface of Veritas IRB Concierge. At the top, a navigation bar includes 'Veritas IRB Concierge - Review', 'Work Area', 'Meetings', 'Contacts', 'Help', and 'Mr. David Fillmore_Reviewer'. On the left, a sidebar contains 'Work Area' and 'Actions' with icons for Previous, Next, Navigate (highlighted with an orange box), Timeline, Print, Documents, IRB Specific Comments, IRB General Comments, and New Comment. The main content area is divided into two panels. The top panel, labeled 'Form Page', shows the 'PI & Site Submission Form' with fields for Project Id (1090) and Version (v1.0, 09-Jul-2018). A section titled 'Training and Expertise' contains a question: 'How long has research been conducted at the investigative site?' with a radio button selected for '1 year'. The bottom panel, labeled 'Form's Index Page', shows the same form's index with a 'Review Reference: 2019-1090-1327-1' and the same Project Id and Version. A list of sections is displayed on the left, and a list of questions is on the right. An orange arrow points from the 'Training and Expertise' section in the top panel to the 'Training and Expertise' question in the bottom panel, indicating the transition.
